Dear friends,

As I write this we are having our 38th sunny day in a row with no rain. But soon the wet season will be here and with it the daily searing heat and thunderstorms. Though we love it here, it will be nice to get up to the cooler north.

Our plans are coming together for our trip to Michigan. We will arrive on Saturday, June 28 and we will leave Tuesday July 8. Last year when we were up we were so encouraged by our visits with so many of you. We would love to see you this year especially if we didn't get the chance last time.

One of our main goals for this trip is to meet new people. We need to if we are to be able to continue serving in this capacity. Would you consider having us out to your small group or even having us for dinner and inviting a few friends as well? We would love the opportunity to share about what we are doing and all the things that have been happening around the world. You have been praying for us and this ministry and it would be an incredible blessing to us and a further investment in the kingdom to give others the same opportunity to make an eternal difference in people around the globe.

The kids are very excited! We have not had a vacation since the kids were born and we are going to bring the tent and camp our way up to Michigan and back. They are all looking forward to roasting marshmallows. That's about the only thing they know about camping!

Would you pray for us as we prepare to travel?

- That we would be safe.
- That we would have great times of reconnecting with all our partners.
- That we would meet new people who would begin to pray for us regularly and people who would consider supporting us financially.

I'll leave you with this from Paul and Timothy. I think about these verses often as I begin my work day knowing that it is you who have sent me.

I thank my God every time I remember you. In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus. Phil 1:3-6

We hope to see you soon!

In Him,
