Dear friends,

Lisa and I are very systematic in the way that we pray for you. We are committed to regularly praying by name for all of our ministry partners. We do have a bit of a problem though; we often don't know your needs!

This newsletter that I send out each month is to keep you informed so you can pray for our needs. We would love it if you would regularly tell us how we can be praying for you. We love to hear your stories of how God is working in your life. Triumphs or struggles, victories or disappointments; if you are willing to share, we will uphold you in prayer. You can email, call or write us—we would love to hear from you.

Here is something that you can pray for me. A short time ago I had two Mormons knock at the door. We had a great conversation in which I think that I was able to make them think about their beliefs a bit differently. I got the impression that no one that they talked to before had seriously challenged their Mormonism. Both of the guys couldn't have been more than 20. Unfortunately I was the last knock on the door of the day for them, so it was getting dark, and after an hour they had to go. I think they left with many questions.

Pray for four things:

1. That these two will somehow make it back to my door!
2. Since they are probably back in Utah at Brigham Young University, that they would encounter other Christians who can answer their questions
3. That someone else will show up at my door!
4. That even if 1 or 3 don't happen, that I would be bold to show up on someone's doorstep.

Stories needed

Have you ever used the "JESUS" film? Maybe on a short term mission trip... maybe you gave it to a coworker or neighbor.

If you have, please tell me about it! I would like to include some stories of how this team has used the "JESUS" film locally and around the world in a future newsletter. Some have already shared a story or two with me and they are very encouraging to hear.

Next month we'll give you an update on what's been going on with us in the past few months. In the meantime, please keep in touch!

In Him,

Tim
